Former Member of Parliament of the TNA Chandra Nehru Chandrakanthan had stated that the Sri Lankan Army gave tea to the members of the Liberation Tigers of Tamil Eelam who surrendered with white flags during the final battles and then shot them dead.

Hundreds of militants including Leader of the LTTE's Political wing, P.Nadesan, and Head of LTTE peace secretariat S.Pulithevan surrendered to the Army holding white flags in the morning of 18th May 2009, the final day of the final battles. But the Army shot them dead, he had stated.

He was participating in the Selkhi TV's special programme 'Minnal'
