

War Criminals

Sri Lanka shrinks 'No Fire Zone'

Intense fighting continues in and around 'No-Fire Zone'

LTTE announces unilateral ceasefire

Rajapakse rejects truce calls, western lectures

The Sri Lankan government has rejected calls for a unilateral ceasefire by the LTTE, stating that it is not a party to the conflict. The government has also rejected Western lectures on human rights, claiming that the LTTE is the primary violator of human rights. The government has announced that it will continue its military operations until the LTTE is completely defeated.

Sarath Fonseka
(General of the Sri Lanka Army)

Mahinda Rajapaksa
(President of Sri Lanka)

Gotabaya Rajapaksa
(Defence Secretary)

The "No-fire zones" areas where designed by the Sri lankan government.

The "No fire zones" where heavily bombed by the government.

The Sri lankan government also restricted food and medicine for tamils, resulting in large numbers of people dying from starvation and many of the injured bleeding to death.

Proof of structural genocide!

Genocide on tamils

Chemical attacks

Chemical Substances found on the wounds are :

- 1) Triethanolamine ($C_6H_{15}NO_3$)
- 2) Phosgene (CCl_2O)

UN Report

According to UN 70,000 tamil civilians were killed in five months.

146,679 tamil civilians are still missing till this day.

Rapes & abductions

Tamil women were sexually assaulted and raped, large numbers of Tamils are imprisoned without trial and abductions are continuing to this day

Surrendering Tamils were massacred by Sri Lankan Army!

Balachnadrnan Prabhakaran had been killed after surrendering to the army on a direct order of :

Defence Secretary
Gotabhaya Rajapaksa.

theguardian

News | Sport | Comment | Culture | Business | Money | Life & Style | Travel | Environment | Tech | TV

Home > World news > Sri Lanka

Sri Lankan security forces destroyed evidence of war crimes, report claims

Public Interest Advocacy Centre investigated allegations of widespread human rights violations in final months of civil war

By David S. Reardon
Published on 15 February 2014 10:27 GMT
Jump to comments (20)

Accusations that Sri Lankan security forces destroyed evidence of mass civilian killings are among allegations of "systemic and widespread" violations of human rights, according to a report by the Public Interest Advocacy Centre (PIAC).

VIGY INFO

Maly to

period

SIE

Today

Super Bowl 2014: Seattle Seahawks beating Denver Broncos

in Seattle to mark reconstruction of Super Bowl XLIX

in which Seattle Seahawks defeated New England Patriots

Monday's Super Bowl Denver Broncos 63-6 at New York's MetLife Stadium

Clashes erupt between